The annual subscription for paying members (those who regularly attend rehearsals) is £100 (roughly £3 per rehearsal), due at your first rehearsal. To encourage prompt payment, the rate for overdue subscriptions increases by £5 after each concert. Members joining part way through the season pay £25 per concert, and students and pensioners get a 50% discount. The easiest way to pay (no paperwork or fees) is to transfer this amount directly from your bank account to ours: HSBC account 30183792, sort code 40-15-05, using online banking or a Giro transfer at a Post Office. Please include your name as a reference. You can also hand or post a cheque, payable to Bromley Symphony Orchestra, to the treasurer, David Rodker, or pay by credit or debit card on www.bromleysymphony.org/members. Please sell as many tickets as possible, to help us keep subscriptions low.

If you pay income tax or capital gains tax, please also sign the Gift Aid declaration below to allow us to reclaim part of this tax. If you pay tax at the higher rate you can claim further tax relief in your Self Assessment tax return. Please notify the treasurer if your address changes.

Please treat all my subscriptions since 6th April 2009 as Gift Aid until further notice.
